Flexible Learning

“A flexible learning design customizes learning environments to meet the needs of learners, using both technological and non-technological tools.”

Flexible learning is a student-centered environment.

It is “about empowering students by offering them choices in how, what, when, and where they learn - the pace, place, and mode of delivery.”

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

is a multidimensional (multifaceted) construct that can be measured with all the dimensions dynamically interrelated. Student engagement typically includes three dimensions:

- Behavioral engagement, focusing on participation in academic, social, and co-curricular activities
- Emotional engagement, focusing on the extent and nature of positive and negative reactions to teachers, classmates, academics, and school
- Cognitive engagement, focusing on students' level of investment in learning

VIRTUAL CLASSROOM GUIDELINES

1. All students must have a photo ID in their profile.
2. Be prepared at all times. Exit or close other applications on computers prior to logging in to mySOUL.
3. Learning resources in different formats are available for viewing and downloading from the virtual classrooms. None of these materials should be screenshot, forwarded to friends, uploaded, or shared on social media or on the Internet.
4. All topic-related questions/inquiries must be posted in the Open Forum section. Students are encouraged to help each other by replying to the posting in the open forum.
5. Inquiries related to grades and class standing must be sent via private message to me. I will not respond in email. I only respond during our class schedule and my consultation hours.

Kumusta? This week (3rd week) is about "data collection tool". After studying this unit, you will be able to: 1) Describe an online survey tool, 2) Create and share a survey form.

"Data collection is a methodical process of gathering and analyzing specific information to proffer solutions to relevant questions and evaluate the results". Click this link to review data collection. In terms of tools, specifically digital tools, there are many software tools to collect data. Go to this list of apps to have an idea. For the complete list, go to this link. Read this article about the use of a web-based tool in assessing high school students' work and health status.

For our exercise this week, we will use Google Form. Google Forms allows us to create and edit a variety of forms, either from scratch or by using a template. Download and read the slide presentation. Watch the video tutorial for your guidance. You can also go to this link for the text-based step-by-step tutorial. Let us do this exercise collaboratively.

If you have inquiry or clarification, post in the open forum area. Participate. Make sure to revisit your message and check the responses. You can also respond to your co-learners if you wish to share something related to his/her messages.

Take note of the required output of this week. This week's required output is to be done individually. I highly suggest to comply the requirement on time. We will be using your survey and collected responses in our next topic. By the way, the Further Readings I posted is my research about the ethical considerations in collecting data online. I hope you have time to read it.

Don't forget to take Quiz 3 which is due on April 30. Please take note that I modified the deadline of the quiz so that I can review the answers during the video session. So, the quiz will be open every Monday and it will be close every Thursday. Please be guided accordingly!

For this Week:

1. Update your profile picture.
2. Submit Self-Introduction Activity.
3. Read the preparatory readings!
4. Read materials for Unit 1.
5. Do Quiz 1.
6. Do Discussion Forum 1.
7. Attend our first Video Conference Session on Saturday, 5:30pm.

ASSIGNMENT

RO 3: Drive Account

Group yourselves into 2-3 members (See groupings below). Decide on health education program that you could start in your community. It can be anything you want! Create a program name and the core idea of what your health education program does. Then, open Google Drive to start planning! Here is what you need to do:

1. Each member of the team should have a google account. You should activate your @su.edu.ph
2. Create a folder and rename it as "MPH-1"
3. Once you're in, create a Google Doc.
4. Name the document "Health Education Plan". As the first line in the document, add your Program Name and make it bold. On a second line in smaller text, write what your program will do.
5. Share the newly created document with all members of your group. You'll have to add your group member's name and their email address, and give them the ability to edit the document in settings.
6. Each person in your group can add more detail to the document from their
